

My Cruise!

From May 17th to May 24th, My Mam, My Dad, and I took a trip on a Mediterranean Cruise with Celebrity Cruises. The stops were in the Greek Islands of Rhodes, Mykonos, Santorini and Hydra and the Turkish port of Kusadasi. This was made up of Greek Islands and Turkey. The weather was really hot and humid but got cold in the evenings with the ocean breeze. There was great food and we got to try a lot of new cultural dishes. Unfortunately my two sisters, Courtney and Ciara, did not get to come. When we were docking in Santorini, we were informed that there were earthquake tremors that hit the island the morning before we arrived. People were worried about it but the workers put our minds at ease and we got off. My favourite stop was Kusadasi as we got to do lots of shopping and the weather was unreal. Kusadasi is on the coast of Turkey near the Greek Islands. Their currency is Turkish Lira but when shopping, they take Euros.
